To promote health and wellness for people with disabilities

• Reduce Health Disparities
• Advocate for Community Inclusion
• Promote Full Accessibility
• Integrate Disability into Public Health Agenda
Health Disparities

• According to HHS, 12.5% of the population has a disability which “seriously limits” them.

• People with a disability are:
  • Over twice as likely to not see a doctor due to cost
  • Over 30% more likely to be obese
  • 60% more likely to smoke
  • Over 2.5 times more likely to develop diabetes
Health Disparities

• Women with a disability are:
  • Less likely to have a current mammogram
  • Less likely to have a current pap test

• People with a disability are:
  • Over 3.5 times more likely to have cardiovascular disease (18-44 y.o.)
  • Just under 3 times more likely to have cardiovascular disease (45-64 y.o.)
Social Determinants

People with disabilities:

• Have double the unemployment rate among those within the workforce

• About 35% more likely to have less than a high school education

• Less likely to report sufficient social & emotional support
FIGURE 1—Weighted population estimate of adults with disabilities and adults without disabilities by age group: National Health Interview Survey, United States, 2010.
Disability Etiquette

People with All Types of Disabilities

• Introduce yourself, offer a handshake.
  • People with limited hand use or those who wear artificial limbs can usually shake hands.
• Always ask before providing assistance.
• Speak directly to the person and not their attendant, interpreter, family member, etc.
• Do not pet service animals without asking the owner first.
• Ask questions if you are unsure how to proceed.
Disability Etiquette

People with Mobility Disabilities

- Do not push/touch a person’s wheelchair/scooter without their permission.
- Place yourself at eye level in front of the person’s wheelchair to facilitate conversations.

People who are Blind or Low Vision

- Always introduce yourself and anyone else who is present.
- Tell the person if you leave the room. Explain interruptions.
- Offer to read information to the person when appropriate.
- If you are asked to offer guidance, offer your arm so the person can grasp your elbow and proceed at a normal pace. Do not take a person’s arm and move them by the elbow.
People who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

- Get the person’s attention before you begin to communicate.
- Let the person establish their preferred method of communication for your conversation. (Ex: lip reading, sign language, note writing.)
- Use gestures and visual cues. (Ex: holding up items that you are discussing.)
- Explain interruptions.
Disability Etiquette

People with Speech and Language Disorders

• Be patient, respectful, and sensitive.
• Do not interrupt or finish the person’s sentence.
• If the person uses any assistive technology devices, make sure the devices are within the person’s reach.

People with Cognitive or Intellectual Disabilities

• Keep communication simple. Use short sentences and complete one topic before moving to the next.
• If possible, use pictures and visual aids.
• Ask if the person has any questions or if they would like for you to clarify anything.
Disability Etiquette

People with Mental Health or Behavioral Health Disabilities

• If a person seems anxious or agitated, speak calmly and offer to repeat information.
• If a person seems nervous or confused, offer to break things down step-by-step to help them understand.
• Respect a person’s choice of language or terminology. For example, if they ask you to refer to something as a “mental health condition” instead of a “mental illness,” listen to their request.
